Side Letter re: Article 37 - Athletics

The parties agree to a reopener to negotiate Article 37. Negotiations shall commence no later ~~early than April~~ May 15, 2022 with a goal of completing negotiations no later than August 31, 2022. Existing language of Article 37 shall remain in effect ~~during the pendency~~ until completion of negotiations.

The parties recognize that during the negotiation of the successor collective bargaining agreement there were portions of Article 37 in which the parties were in mutual agreement on language and that the goal of these negotiations is to resolve the remaining areas of dispute. The bargaining history of Article 37 from negotiations for a successor collective bargaining agreement shall carry forward into and become part of the bargaining history for the reopener.

~~University will withdraw its current Labor Board Petition filed on August 31, 2021, seeking modification of the existing collective bargaining agreement between the parties.~~
